

Impact 2013

Together, we are working toward our vision of a community where every woman and girl has the opportunity to reach her full potential.

Highlights of what we accomplished in 2013 because of your support:

Every time a woman has the opportunity to become a leader, to earn enough money to support her family or to escape a violent relationship, our community becomes a little stronger and more vibrant. And, we come a little closer to realizing our vision of a community where every woman and girl has the opportunity to reach her full potential.

Michelle Zych
Executive Director

Identifying Issues

Our "How Are Women Doing in Omaha?" report and "Women and Leadership in Omaha" update revealed:

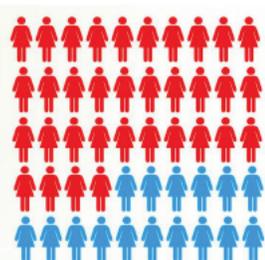

- 63% of families living in poverty in Omaha are headed by a single female.
- 26% of businesses in the Omaha area are owned by women.
- 25% of the elected positions in Douglas and Sarpy counties are held by females, which is down from 34% in 1996 when the Women's Fund first looked at the numbers.

Funding Solutions

- Grants totaling $133,000 were awarded to 20 local nonprofits for programs addressing economic self-sufficiency, domestic violence, sexual literacy and leadership.
- A Recycled Rides vehicle provided a young mother with reliable transportation.

Women in the Workforce

67.8% of Omaha women are in the labor force.

2013 Grants

Leading Change

- Women's Fund Circles offered opportunities for 50 young professional women to network, interact with established professional women and learn about philanthropy.
- Nearly 200 representatives of nonprofit agencies took part in quarterly Talk of the Town workshops designed to promote collaboration while focusing on issues impacting their clients.
- Today's Omaha Woman magazine celebrated its 16th year of covering issues relevant to local women.
- A record crowd of nearly 1,100 women and men heard Betsy Myers' leadership message at the annual Fall Luncheon.

“The Women's Fund takes a serious look at the status of girls and women in our community and provides meaningful information and resources. I believe that women's issues are everyone's issues and feel strongly about supporting an organization that makes things happen!”
