

Submit Online Comments

Your engagement continues to be a critical part of the legislative process. Join us by using your voice to share your position on bills and advocate for the issues important to you. From the comfort of your own home and in less than five minutes, you can submit an online comment for any bill. Your online comment can be included in the public hearing record if it is submitted by 8:00 am (CST) the day of the committee hearing!

Six Easy Steps to Leave a Comment

1. Go to <https://www.NebraskaLegislature.gov>
2. Find the bill you care about in the upper righthand corner.
3. Click "Submit Comments Online."

The screenshot shows the 'Document Info' and 'Text Copies' sections for a bill. The 'Document Info' section includes 'Introduced By: Blood' and 'Date of Introduction: January 07, 2021'. The 'Text Copies' section includes 'Introduced'. Below these sections is a 'History' section with a 'View Details' button. A red oval highlights the 'Submit Comments Online For LB20' button. Below the button is a table with columns: Date, Action, Journal, and Vote. The table contains one row: Jan 05, 2022, Title printed. Carryover bill, 5.

4. Select if you want your comment included in the hearing record and enter your info as a Proponent (if you support the bill) and Opponent (if you are against).
5. Share your message in just a few short sentences!

Written Statement
This is the portion where you add your lived experience or expertise. It doesn't have to be long but personalize why you care about this bill and what steps you think policymakers should take. If you need content, feel free to look at our website or any of the fact sheets available at www.OmahaWomensFund.org/Be-An-Advocate/. Your voice is critical to the process. Don't let perfectionism stand in the way of advocating for gender equity in Nebraska.

NOTE: The submitted comments will be available for access by senators and staff throughout the session. Please note, there should be no expectation of privacy regarding comments submitted in this format. If a citizen uses the database to submit their views prior to the public hearing on a bill or resolution, this option will allow input to the members of the committee prior to any committee votes.
